The Chesapeake & Ohio Railway Company

Arch Brick Store House
Structure No. 88
At Hinton

Note: Drawings based upon C & O Drawing No. 8720
and on-site measurements. All dimensions are railroad direction. The building is a Blaw-Knox metal building.

Note: In the late steam era the building was painted the standard C & O engine house red, an oxide red or Tuscan Red shade. In 1976 the building was painted black and in the 1980’s the building was painted silver.

Copyright by:
WILLIAM E. SIMONTON III

circa 1946

SERIES COUNTY - WEST VIRGINIA
HINTON DIVISION - NEW RIVER SUBDIVISION

SCALE: 1/4" = 1 FOOT

SOUTH ELEVATION
WEST ELEVATION
NORTH ELEVATION
EAST ELEVATION

SITUATION PLAN

Toilet
115' TURNTABLE
WASH RACK

EXTERIOR
SUMMERS COUNTY - WEST VIRGINIA
HINTON DIVISION - NEW RIVER SUBDIVISION

Note: Drawings based upon C & O Drawing No. 8720
and on-site measurements. All dimensions are railroad direction. The building is a Blaw-Knox metal building.

Note: In the late steam era the building was painted the standard C & O engine house red, an oxide red or Tuscan Red shade. In 1976 the building was painted black and in the 1980’s the building was painted silver.

Copyright by:
WILLIAM E. SIMONTON III

circa 1946

SERIES COUNTY - WEST VIRGINIA
HINTON DIVISION - NEW RIVER SUBDIVISION

SCALE: 1/4" = 1 FOOT

SOUTH ELEVATION
WEST ELEVATION
NORTH ELEVATION
EAST ELEVATION

SITUATION PLAN

Toilet
115' TURNTABLE
WASH RACK